LITTLE LOCALS

This is all Saints' day.

To-morrow will be 'All Souls' day.

Mr. C. Leal left for Point Isabel this morning.

When is the Blue club ticket to be published?

The killing last night did not result from politics.

THE HERALD never misses an issue for anything.

Don't forget THE HERALD story to commence soon.

Mr. John Sime left for his home at the Point to-day.

Mr. Christain Hess returned to the Point this morning.

Read announcement of D. McNeil Turner in to-day's issue.

No through mail to night, but go and take a look at the new post office.

The steamboat Bessie will leave for up river points as soon as freight off of Morgan arrives.

Mr. Louis Kowaleki is having a substantial brick walk put down in front of his office on Elizabeth street.

A most disagreeable east wind has been blowing the past two days.

We are instructed by Mr. A. A. Brown to state that he is not a candidate for any office.

Mr. J. R. Jeffers, a prominent stockman from Santa Maria, is spending a few days in the city.

This weather is very bad for those who are making decorations for the cemetery for to-morrow.

WANTED:—A young man of energy and intelligence as local rustler. Good salary. Apply immediately at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Cain will leave on the steamship Morgan this week for New Orleans and other cities on their bridal tour.

The Aransas Pass railroad has been sold to the Southern Pacific Company, and will be transferred to that company on January 1, 1893.

A number of county candidates held a caucus at Point Isabel Sunday, so we are informed. Every thing must have seemed blue down there on that day.

The steamship Morgan sailed from Galveston for Brazos at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. She will probably reach Brazos about four o'clock this afternoon.

There will be no recitation at the public school this afternoon or to-morrow, on account of "All Saints' day" and "All Souls' day," to-day and to-morrow respectively.

From Mr. Richardson, Mexican consul at Matamoros, we learn that a great many people of that city are suffering with la grippe. Mr. Richardson tells that out of thirty employees in one building, eleven of them are confined to their beds with this malady.

We call attention to the card of S. W. Brooks, architect and builder which we publish to day. Mr. Brooks is well known all along the lower Rio Grande as an architect of ability, many substantial buildings both in Brownsville, Matamoros and other river towns, giving evidence of his skill. His last work of importance was on the handsome, new custom house, lately completed here, in the construction of which none but a skilled architect would have been employed.

Now Clark men, to the front! Watch every chance and let no opportunity to gain votes for George Clark be neglected. Just one week from to-day, and your task will be ended. Until then, be constantly on the alert. Remember, the result depends upon every individual. It will be a close contest and every vote will count. With one final, long, strong pull, we may be instrumental in carrying Cameron county for George Clark, and place the county on record as condemning Hoggism, and favoring good government and state prosperity.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Murder and Suicide at Fort Brown—Two Soldiers Dead.

A dreadful tragedy occurred here last night. Two soldiers from Fort Brown, the cook and gardener became involved in a quarrel which resulted in the death of both. The trouble was about as follows: It seems that the cook at Fort Brown, Keppler by name, has been in the habit of frequenting a low dive called "Coney Island," located near the garrison where he, Keppler, was paying attention to a certain negro woman. Last night at about ten o'clock on going there he found the gardener from the fort, known as "Barney" Whalen, in the house, and a row ensued. Keppler then went to his quarters in the garrison got his pistol and returned, when Whalen ran towards the main entrance of the garrison, Keppler following in close pursuit. As they reached the gate, Keppler fired four shots at Whalen, the third shot only taking effect, the ball entering the right side of stomach and coming out over left hip. Whalen fell at once and Keppler then ran along the garrison fence to the lower gate, and entered the fort. The guard called to him to halt, whereupon Keppler kneeled down, and placing his pistol to his forehead, blew out his own brains, the ball entering over right eye and passing out of the top of the head. He died instantly. Whalen was not dead when found, and was carried to the hospital, where he died at about 12.15. They will both be buried in the garrison cemetery this afternoon. There had been no bad blood known to exist between the two lately, but Keppler was heard to remark yesterday afternoon that he intended to kill his man. The affair is greatly regretted, and has cast a gloom over Fort Brown.

—If you want a cool glass of beer go to Mike Leahy's.

For District Judge.

As will be seen in our announcement column today, we are authorized to announce the name of Hon. D. McNeil Turner as a candidate for district judge, for this the 28th judicial district. Mr. Turner is an able lawyer, having served this district many years as district attorney. He will will make a good judge, if elected, and will serve the district well. He requests us to say that he did not go before the judicial convention at Rio Grande City.
